No 2232

Bangalore,
11th March, 1949

On the 8th March 1949, I visited Kadur The President and members of the Municipal Council of Kadur met me Many of the roads are in an utterly neglected condition and the town as a whole requires urgent improvements

The President urged for a liberal grant for town improvement I promised a grant of Rs.5 000/- for repairing the interior roads of the town which are in a very bad condition The amount may be made available out of the Town Improvement Grant
